GREETINGS FROM JOHOR, MALAYSIA.

Introduction

Welcome to Johor, a state in the early days known as Land's End. Johor has a diverse cultural heritage and some gazette rainforests, namely Endau Rompin range. Most of the economic sectors are concentrated in agriculture, manufacturing, tourism and industry. It is also Malaysia's main producer of palm oil, rubber, pineapples and rubber.

Johor is the third largest state of Malaysia and is located in the southern tip of Peninsular Malaysia. Its capital is Johor Bahru, a busy cosmopolitan city that is gateway to Singapore via the Causeway. The state of Johor consists of eight main districts namely Johor Bahru, Batu Pahat, Muar, Kluang, Mersing, Kota Tinggi, Segamat and Pontian.

The race venue, Kota Tinggi, is known as a historical town because the Sultanate of Johor was established there. The tourists destinations here are Kota Tinggi Waterfall, located at the base of Muntahak Mountain. The most popular beaches are Tanjung Desaru and Sail Rock beach. Teluk Sengat located 25 km east of Kota Tinggi town, is a village visited by tourists for its seafood.
