INFORMATION BULLETIN

To: Dragon Boat Associations/Clubs/Teams,

GREETINGS FROM LANGKAWI ISLAND, MALAYSIA.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the mesmerizing Langkawi Island! The Langkawi archipelago is made up of a cluster of 99 islands, sprinkled just off the shores of the Northern Kedah State in Peninsular Malaysia. The landscape of Langkawi Island is painted with marbled mountains, vast paddy fields and rural villages, miles and miles of white sandy beaches, secret caves, and pockets of virgin rainforests dating back millions of years.

The word Langkawi has been derived from two local words. 'Lang' which comes from the word 'helang' meaning Eagle, and the word 'Kawi' stands for the reddish brown. You can see plenty of reddish brown eagles in the island, particularly if you take a river cruise through the mangroves and limestone rocks, where you can even feed the eagles that swoop in.

One of the main attraction in Langkawi island is the Kilim Karst Geoforest Park which is a world-class nature attraction featuring a gorgeous limestone landscape, an extensive mangrove forest system, lovely beaches, coastal wetlands and two islands (Langgun and Dendang) that are spectacular nature parks in themselves.

Langkawi Geopark is also the world's first duty-free geopark and the only geopark that is an archipelago, or island cluster. There are over 90 geological sites around the geopark that are under research and have been shown to possess high heritage value. The whole region possesses an abundance of geological attractions like caves, sea arches and stacks, fossils, glacial dropstones and cascading waterfalls.
